European Society for Coating Technology (EGL)

The EGL

Who and what is the EGL?

The European Society for Coating Technology (EGL) is the European association for specialists in the coating field.

What is the connection with the DFO?

We work closely with the “German Association for Surface Treatment” (DFO), whose members are exclusively companies.

The members of the EGL are individuals/ specialists working in all fields of the coating sector.

What are our targets?

We see ourselves as being an interface between practice, research and study in the coating technology.

We can mutually support the professional development by exchanging practical experiences and coating technology knowledge.

Be an active member !

Who is active in the EGL?

In the EGL you will find members from:

- Paint consumers
- Paint manufacturers
- Raw material suppliers for paint manufacturers
- Pretreatment suppliers
- Plant and equipment suppliers
- R&D and technical institutions

Students with emphasis in coatings / coating technology

And hopefully you?

Your benefits at the EGL
